

Clinical Debriefing Seminar

LEARNING TO TALK

Main Auditorium, Stavanger University Hospital, Norway

13- 14 May 2019

Cost: free

Join us to learn more about clinical debriefing in healthcare!

This event celebrates the second year of clinical debriefing implementation and research across 3 countries utilising the TALK framework. Research results, staff secondment experiences, exciting guest speaker presentations and available educational materials will be presented. There will also be a strong focus on sharing case studies and new ideas to support the progression of the project. You will be able to network with like-minded international colleagues.
